Dear Fines Victoria

I have identified the driver as a Learner Driver, Roisin Tobin and have attached a copy of the electronic logbook confirming the drive time and also the Traffic Camera Photos identifying 'L' plates displayed at the time of the offence.

On this occasion the learner was concentrating on changing the manual car down to 2nd gear for the turn and following the vehicle in front of her, and realised when it was too late to stop that the right turn arrow had gone to red.

Learners are likely to and expected to make mistakes and errors in judgement during this period of learning and I would respectfully request that this learner is not penalised for that reason.

For your information and consideration please.

Kind regards.
